Wildcats Remain Undefeated in World Series Play

Thomas Miller hit a grand slam in the third inning to power the WNCC baseball team (41-22-2) to an 8-4 win Monday against No. 1-ranked New Mexico Junior College in their second game at the College World Series in Grand Junction, Colo. The Wildcats will now play San Jacinto College today at 6:30 p.m. PST, in the double elimination, ten-team tournament.

On Saturday, starting pitcher Cole Rohrbough and relievers Dan Grubbs and Stephen Sauer combined for a 2-0 shutout against Delgado Community College in Western's opening World Series game.

The Wildcats are now a perfect 10-0 in the post-season against some of the top baseball programs in the country. They will have to win two more games to get to the Final Four and four more to win a national championship. Stephen Sauer will start today's game for WNCC.
